

Window

Magic Giant

It's 3 A.M., I hope you're home
I wanna be with you
Just let me in through the window
I had a dream we fell asleep
And woke up in ecstasy
What makes a dream come true? No one needs to know
I will come in through the window Oh, I'm not leaving you alone
You could write this love in stone
I'm not leaving you alone
It's Friday night and we're alive
And lover's Lane is open wide
We'll get there when we arrive (we arrive)
Your balcony's a limousine
Your bed's a yellow submarine
Right off to the great unknown
Just let me in through the window No one needs to know
I will come in through the window Oh, I'm not leaving you alone
You could write this love in stone
I'm not leaving you alone Oh, I'm not leaving you alone
You could write this love in stone
I'm not leaving you alone
No, I'm not leaving you alone
You could write this love in stone
I'm not leaving you alone
Oh (wo-ah, wo-ah)
I'm not leaving you alone (Wo-ah, wo-ah)
You could write this love in stone (Wo-ah, wo-ah)
I'm not leaving you alone
Oh (wo-ah, wo-ah)
I'm not leaving you alone (Wo-ah, wo-ah)
You could write this love in stone (Wo-ah, wo-ah)
I'm not leaving you alone
