Run Wild (feat. Jake Reese)

Hardwell

I remember how we use to be free
Listen to nothing but our feelings
Walked to the sound of our own drums beatingWe locked ourselves away and tied up the beast
But we're only waiting for the moment to break freeCan you hear my heart howl at the sky
It's the wolf that I keep deep inside
I've been holding her back but tonight
Tonight we run wild
Tonight we run wild
Tonight we run wildTonight we run wildTonight we run wildThere is no denying what we're made of
See how your eyes reflect the moonlight
Feel how your instincts come back to lifeCause you can try your best to keep it locked down
But it's only waiting for the moment to break outCan you hear my heart howl at the sky
It's the wolf that I keep deep inside
I've been holding her back but tonight
Tonight we run wild
Can you hear my heart howl at the sky
It's the wolf that I keep deep inside
I've been holding her back but tonight
Tonight we run wildTonight we run wildTonight we run wild
Tonight we run wild
