

King of the Road

Piebald

Andy went back to school. He got sick of Newbury comics.

Aaron still rides a lot, except now he's just fatter.

Alex took over for Alex Van Halen, after his major surgery.

Jon well, he got married to Laura, and i teach their kid in first grade.

Thought I saw you on the road last night.

I need to get my eyes checked

Can't believe I loved something as yellow as you

He's gone so deal with it man

Wait, after all, he did get us across the world and back

Weren't you parked at the station? My mind is playing tricks on me.

Can't believe I loved something as yellow as you

He's gone so deal with it man

Wait, after all, he did get us across the world and back

We left you in a Carolina; I need to rub my eyes.

We keep your door like it's a postcard from you from camp

Maybe we'll see you in a junkyard soon. Oh man I really hope not

Can't believe I loved something as yellow as you

He's gone so deal with it man

Wait, after all, he did get us across the world and back

Maybe you're in auto heaven. Oh man I really hope so.

Can't believe I loved something as yellow as you

He's gone so deal with it man

Wait, after all, he did get us across the world and back

Wait, after all, he did get us across the world and back

Hell yeah

Now it's all the same. (x4)

(starts into "Just a Simple Plan")
