

Hello Miss Lonesome

Marlon Williams

Hello Miss Lonesome
I see you're back in town
It's funny how I lose mind when you come around
Papa thinks that he knows you Mama knows you more, and she knows where to hide when you come knocking at the door
Miss Lonesome's in the eyes of almost everyone you meet
Hello, this night that ever did occur
Was when my darling said goodbye and took the boys with her
Now we all pick our poison, we dig our own graves
And Jesus is accountable for every soul he saves
There's gold in the rivers and diamonds in the mines
Miss Lonesome knows the favor, let's roll those lucky dice
Hello Miss Lonesome
I see you're back in town
It's funny how I lose my mind when you come around
There's gold in the rivers and diamonds in the mines
Miss Lonesome knows the favor, let's roll those lucky dice
