Well, so imagined it's 4AM in downtown Los Angeles
I'm throwing ones fall in love with every dime
She looking at me I fall for it every time
And she's the baddest here won't go for a different kind
Want some brain cause there's nothing more important in the mind
I'm watching amazed the way she ride the pole
Got it you sold me in that private show
And she's from L.A, I said i'm from the O
3 songs play she ask me do you got time for mo?
I said why? nighed, eyes, lied

Spending all the cash I know I've got
I hit the ATM grab a serious amount
Hour later grab more think I'm clearing in my account
I know in the morning nothing out made sense
Spent it all in the strippy don't know how I'll pay rents
But fuck it it was money well spent that's what I
Say to myself she's the one call her myExotic (Ay) Exotic (Ay)
