

You and Me

Tammy Wynette

I can hear the rain it's fallin softly as I watch him lyin next to me I can feel his heart it's beatin softly he just loved me so tenderly but it should be you and mewhen he touches me I feel your fingers and each time we kiss I see your face when he locks the door behind us then he thinks the world can't find us but he can't see no he can't see that it should be you and me so i'll just close my eyes and dream about you cause everytime I dream your always there then you'll lock the door behind us and in my dreams the world can't find us and it will be so real to me it's finally you and me
