

Fast Life (feat. JMSN)

Christian Rich

Sometimes its right yeah
Most of the time it's what you make it
Do what you like, yeah
It's your time, so don't you waste it, waste it
See, there's some things I need to talk about with you at night, yeah
Don't misunderstand me, baby,
Don't misunderstand me, baby.
Comes in different colors,
Everything in black-and-white, yeah
See, I can't keep you happy, baby,
If you can't keep you happy, baby.
Won't you figure out what you want?
Cause you carry what you put on
The Fast Life
The Fast Life
The Fast Life
The Fast Life
Oh, you know you like it,
There ain't no reason you should fake it
Why try to fight it?
Everything is give and take yeah, take yeah
There's some things I need to talk about with you at night, yeah
Don't misunderstand me, baby,
Don't misunderstand me, baby.
Comes in different colors,
Everything in black-and-white, yeah
See, I can't keep you happy, baby,
If you can't keep you happy, baby.
Won't you figure out what you want?
Cause you carry what you put on
The Fast Life
The Fast Life
The Fast Life
The Fast Life
End
