

Bad Liver and a Broken Heart

Hayes Carll

Arkansas, my head hurts
I'd love to stick around and maybe make it worse I got a girl out in Henrietta And her loves like tornado weather It's girls like this that keep me tryin'
She goes off like an air raid siren
Come in clean, leave torn apart
A bad liver and a broken heart Indian summer, Oklahoma sunset
If there's a nicer place I haven't been there yet Standin' outside of the Blue Door Too tired to sleep, to drunk for more It's nights like this that keep me tryin'
Woman always knows when her man is lyin'
It ain't me, I'm just playin' a part
A bad liver and a broken heart
I'll get old before I'm good at this Who's the president, what year is it?
Doesn't anybody speak about truth anymore?
Maybe that's what songs are for You're the wind and I'm on fire
In this line of work no one retires
Come in clean, leave torn apart
A bad liver and a broken heart
