

Rivers of Sand

Fennesz

I have listened repeatedly
I have listened very well
No one interrupts the harmful
When they're speaking To wonder why of Europe
Say your goodbyes to Europe
Swallow the lie of Europe
Our shared history dies with Europe (follow me, won't you follow me?)
A future is hinting at itself
Do you fear what I fear?
All those names of ancestry
Too gentle for the stones they bear Somewhere someone wants to see you
Someone's traveling towards us all To wonder why of Europe
To live, love, and cry in Europe
Say your goodbyes to Europe
Our history dies with Europe (Follow me, won't you follow me?)
The lights are dimming
The lounge is dark
The best cigarette is saved for last
We drink alone
We drink alone
