Everything should be fine
You'll find, things tend to stand in line
It's not a link in time
But, I'm sure you'll let me try And I'm Sitting on fire So warm
We're waiting on pyres Who lay their line, and say
"You're like my kind?"
You love the times I sang
"You're loss was mine"
Who lay their line and say
"You're like my kind?"
You love the times I sang
"You're loss was mine" In your minds eye
In your-
In your minds eye In your-
In your minds eye
In your-
And I'm
Sitting on fire
So warm
We're waiting on pyres
Who lay their line, and say
"You're like my kind?"
You love the times I sang
"You're loss was mine"
Who lay their line and say
"You're like my kind?"
You love the times I sang
"You're loss was mine"
