

I Got You

The O'Jays

I've been afraid for a long time
I know how it feel to be scared
I know what it means to be there
All alone in the dark
With your thoughts and your fears
And your prayers But now for sure is the wrong time
To be on your own
I'll be the warm to your cold
I'll be your new to your old
Even in a warzone
I'll be your home Even if the sky begins to fall
And even if they try to build that wall
And even if the bombs go off
And the world is set on fire, oh
I got your back, I will begin
My love will last, I'll be right here
I got you
I got you I got your back, I will begin
My love will last, I'll be right here
I got you
I got you Oh, oh-oh, oh
(Oh, oh-oh, oh)
Oh, oh-oh, oh
(Oh, oh-oh, oh)
Oh, oh-oh, oh
(Oh, oh-oh, oh)
I got you
Love is a revolution, it twists and it turns
It burns [?] return
Joinin' the rebellion
Is this how we save the world, oh-oh I can imagine a future where there is no hate
Forget what the say
You have always been great
I'll see you on the battle line
I got your back and I know you've got mine And even when you're running from the place
And even when you're [?]
And even when there's no more time
And the seas are overflowin', oh I got your back, I will begin
My love will last, I'll be right here
I got you
I got you I got your back, I will begin
My love will last, I'll be right here

I got you
I got you Oh, oh-oh, oh
(Oh, oh-oh, oh)
Oh, oh-oh, oh
(Oh, oh-oh, oh)
Oh, oh-oh, oh
(Oh, oh-oh, oh)
I got you Oh, oh-oh, oh
(Oh, oh-oh, oh)
Oh, oh-oh, oh
(Oh, oh-oh, oh)
Oh, oh-oh, oh
(Oh, oh-oh, oh)
I got you
