I Got You

The O'Jays

I've been afraid for a long time I know how it feel to be scared I know what it means to be there All alone in the dark With your thoughts and your fears And your prayersBut now for sure is the wrong time To be on your own I'll be the warm to your cold I'll be your new to your old Even in a warzone I'll be your homeEven if the sky begins to fall And even if they try to build that wall And even if the bombs go off And the world is set on fire, oh I got your back, I will begin My love will last, I'll be right here I got you I got youI got your back, I will begin My love will last, I'll be right here I got you I got youOh, oh-oh, oh (Oh, oh-oh, oh) Oh, oh-oh, oh (Oh, oh-oh, oh)

> (Oh, oh-oh, oh) I got you

Oh, oh-oh, oh

Love is a revolution, it twists and it turns

It burns [?] return

Joinin' the rebellion

Is this how we save the world, oh-ohI can imagine a future where there is no hate

Forget what the say

You have always been great

I'll see you on the battle line

I got your back and I know you've got mineAnd even when you're running from the place

And even when you're [?]

And even when there's no more time

And the seas are overflowin', ohI got your back, I will begin

My love will last, I'll be right here

I got you

I got youI got your back, I will begin

My love will last, I'll be right here

I got you
I got youOh, oh-oh, oh
(Oh, oh-oh, oh)
Oh, oh-oh, oh
(Oh, oh-oh, oh)
Oh, oh-oh, oh
(Oh, oh-oh, oh)
I got youOh, oh-oh, oh
(Oh, oh-oh, oh)
Oh, oh-oh, oh
(Oh, oh-oh, oh)
I got you
