

Ghost in a Kiss (feat. Samuel T. Herring)

Clams Casino

Looking back
I never was
And I know this
This wasn't yours
And your patience leaves me floored
Have no patience for adoreRelease me maybe
And leave me crazy
My blue shell baby
The black sky fading
Bluebells waving
Leave me hazy
[Post-
By the time
We walk away along the grove arcade
We will have turned towards the door
A million times or moreYou were a ghost in a kiss
And I know this
This, for I had my chance
And the light falls down dirty stone
Gods know home, Gods know war, Gods know man
And you were always a ghost in my handRelease me maybe
You leave me crazy
My blue shell baby
A black sky fading
Bluebells waving
Leave me hazy
[Post-
By the time
We walk away along the grove arcade
We will have turned to watch the door
A million times or more
My blue lipped babyBy the time
We walk away along the grove again
We will have turned towards the door
A million times or more
