

Days

Train

It's been days since I been doin' well
Since I don't feel like hell or crawlin' under you
Am I crazy feelin' like I do?
Like to blame it all on you for crawlin' under me, yeah Am I wrong for takin' this so hard, for tearin' me apart?
It's tearin' me apart, partly tearin' me a hole in my heart
Hey, is everybody right?
Have I become so uptight? I'm givin' it away And if blame is the answer, it's under control, come on
And if shame is the answer, I'm sellin' my soul
And if pain is the answer, I've seen it all
I'm tryin' to calm you down
Don't seem to see it the way I see it
Round an' round an' round
Everybody's feelin' uptight Hey, hey, hey, hey, hey, is everybody
Is everybody on the same page?
Am I just one to move about the house this way? And if blame is the answer, it's under control
And if shame is the answer, I'm sellin' you my Head down, up an' there lookin' for a reason
Head down, I ain't got nothin' left to give
Head down, up an' there lookin' for a reason
Head down, I ain't got nothin' left to give
Head down, up an' there lookin' for the reasons Head down, I ain't, come on, let's give in
If pain is the answer It's been days since I been doin' well
Since I don't feel like hell or crawlin' under you
