Piano Man

Billy Joel

It's nine o'clock on a saturday Regular crowd shuffles in There's an old man sittin' next to me Makin' love to his tonic and ginHe says son can you play me a memory? I'm not really sure how it goes But it's sad and it's sweet and I knew it complete When I wore a younger man's clothesLa-la-la de-de da La-la de-de da da-daSing us a song you're the piano man Sing us a song tonight Well we're all in the mood for a melody And you've got us feelin' alright Now John at the bar is a friend of mine He gets me my drinks for free And he's quick with a joke or to light up your smoke But there's someplace that he'd rather beHe says Bill I believe this is killing me As a smile ran away from his face Well I'm sure that I could be a movie star If I could get out of this placeOh, la-la-la de-de da La-la de-de da da-daNow Paul is a real estate novelist Who never had time for a wife And he's talkin' with Davy who's still in the navy And probably will be for lifeAnd the waitress is practicing politics As the businessmen slowly get stoned Yes they're sharing a drink they call loneliness But it's better than drinkin' alone ... Sing us the song you're the piano man Sing us a song tonight Well we're all in the mood for a melody And you've got us feelin' alrightIt's a pretty good crowd for a saturday And the manager gives me a smile 'Cause he knows that it's me they've been comin' to see To forget about life for a while And the piano it sounds like a carnival And the microphone smells like a beer And they sit at the bar and put bread in my jar And say man what are you doin' here? Oh, la-la-la de-de da La-la de-de da da-da Sing us the song you're the piano man Sing us a song tonight Well we're all in the mood for a melody And you've got us feelin' alright
