

Nightcrawlers

NIKI

Nobody sleeps in this land of mine (of mine, of mine)
Nobody sleeps, nobody keeps track of time (of time)
Child of the moon, oh, but very soon you will shine, shine, shine, shine I got you salty 'cause you see me living out my sweetest dreams (yuh)
I'd say take it up with the man on the moon but that would be me (yuh)
Sleeping on cloud number nine
All of my friends by my side
Nothing to hide, nothing to lose
I'm on the loose
Bet you my bottom and top dollar second you get here you'd love it here too
This is the coveted land for both heroes and fools
Zero in rules, zeroes and jewels
We're just all liberty-drunk, stupid and young but we always pull through
Like ooh
Mama taught me don't forget your manners
But truth be told nothing really matters
We don't really think about the after
We just run like hell 'til we're cadavers
Live moment to moment, paycheck to paycheck
We're the nightcrawlers
We're the nightcrawlers
Ah ah ah...Nobody sleeps in this land of mine (of mine, of mine)
Nobody sleeps, nobody keeps track of time (of time)
Child of the moon, oh, but very soon you will shine, shine, shine, shine Nobody sleeps in this land of mine (of mine, of mine)
Nobody sleeps, nobody keeps track of time (of time)
Child of the moon, oh, but very soon you will shine, shine, shine, shine
Really shouldn't get too close don't you get cozy
Hate to burst your bubble but you really don't know me
Everybody falls down ringin' 'round the Rosie
Once I owned myself now everybody wanna own me
Mama taught me don't forget your manners
But most of all don't forget your standards
Open your door but don't share where you sleep
'Cause this is where the black sheep eat Nobody sleeps in this land of mine (of mine, of mine)
Nobody sleeps, nobody keeps track of time (of time)
Child of the moon, oh, but very soon you will shine, shine, shine, shine Related
