

Morning View (feat. SZA)

Towkio

Good morning, face's out of pillow sheet
I watch you dream
Only time you seem at peace
I've fallen into routine
We fight, fuck, then fall asleep And then I wake up
I think to myself "What a morning view"
When I would like to keep it
Arms reach, I fall in synch with you
Comfortable
Yeah, I said I wake up
I can't help but think "Ooh what a morning view"
I'd like to keep it
[?] to create
That's what we want to do
I say "Good morning"
We get the sun, watch it wash all over your face
Still taste you, still faded, might stay
Play hooky from work
I'd rather lay on you
What do you say?
Still taste you, still faded, might stay
Now that you've come back?
Why did you stay out?
10: 30
You got a career, but you cover my money
You need a ride, it's getting late
You stay the night, it's 3AM, no going home
We break in day, you back again
Let's get a taste of that money, you
All I see, all I see, all I see you
Wake up
I think to myself "Oh, what a morning view"
I think to myself "Oh, what a morning view"
Good, good, good morning
