

Doing Time

Avenged Sevenfold

HahahahahaThe lives of some men
If walls could talk to spill the lies
We'd see the world through devil's eyesI maintain an addiction
They know they take to high
I got an itch with a loaded hair trigger
And a one way ticket to flyWhen there's no writing on the walls
I see the lifeless devils start to crawl
I don't need no lessons
After all
Everybody's doing their time
Caught your eye in the corner
Don't you look at me wrong
Fucked up and thrown into the gutter
Gotta fix what don't belongI see your writing on the wall
I see the lifeless devils start to crawl
I don't need no lessons
After all
Everybody's doing their timeUhhh
That's just the price to play
So tell me what you're like
Gotta hand on a kerosene match tonightHad enough of opinions
I got enough on my mind
Sell your soul for approval and a dollar
Got a pretty little body to grind
I see your number on the wall
I see the lifeless devils start to crawl
I don't need no lessons
Watch the fall
You lost my attention
After all
Everybody's doing their time
