

Sweat (feat. Lil Wayne)

Bow Wow

Girl I wanna make you sweat
I love the way you do it like that
She a keeper, she keep that pussy wet
She a slurper til it ain't nothing left
The way she drop it on the floor
And baby I know what you want
Yeah girl I got what you need
I'm riding in the 'gatti with the windows full of steam Boom let it out now
You're a freak baby, gon' let it out now
Boom let it out now
You're a freak baby, gon' let it out now [Verse 1: Bow Wow]
Yeah, tell me what you want, tell me what you want do
Way you spread it out girlfriend I want you
I-I-I'ma put it on you
Tell me when you're coming baby, I'ma come too
You're a pretty little thing, shawty I can't even lie
You racking up them sky miles cause you stay fly
You do it so well, you don't even gotta try
Got a nigga staring out the corner of my eye And the way her body be banging
I swear you gotta be drinking every bottle in the club
Wake up with a story to tell
I'm just tryna have some fun, and I ain't looking for love
Girl I wanna make you sweat
I love the way you do it like that
She a keeper, she keep that pussy wet
She a slurper til it ain't nothing left
The way she drop it on the floor
And baby I know what you want
Yeah girl I got what you need
I'm riding in the 'gatti with the windows full of steam Boom let it out now
You're a freak baby, gon' let it out now Boom let it out now
You're a freak baby, gon' let it out now Sweating so hard you need three or four towels
Shawty wanna be my boo like showtime at the Apollo

And get freaky bring you over, hit that ass just like a rhino

I'm on some gangsta shit, I knock your head off
You bark up my tree, that's a dead dog
Where them hoes at? tell 'em I said wassup
I like a shaved pussy, no razor bumps
Yeah, YMCMB, when I step on stage, them hoes sweat like I'm Keith Girl I wanna make you sweat

I love the way you do it like that
She a keeper, she keep that pussy wet
She a slurper til it ain't nothing left
The way she drop it on the floor
And baby I know what you want
Yeah girl I got what you need
I'm riding in the 'gatti with the windows full of steam Boom let it out now
You're a freak baby, gon' let it out now Boom let it out now
You're a freak baby, gon' let it out now Say you got friends shawty, you can bring 'em too
When I put this D on you, what you gon do

And I dont mean to be mean, but shawty I'm trying to fuhhh... Girl I wanna make you sweat

She a slurper til it ain't nothing left
The way she drop it on the floor
