

Get Up

R3HAB & Ciara

Mmm, you better get up
You're so close to the fall, too far from my heart
But I'm ready to come take you away, make you my home
I don't care where you're from, and I don't care where we are
As long as you give it your all
So you better get up
Cause you locked down all your love
You better get up
Cause this feeling just ain't enough
All I want is all of you
And all of me is loving you
So you better get up
Cause you locked down all your love.
Love, love, love
Ow I know we're kind of lost, but at least I'm here with you
No matter where we go, we don't look back, this is our home
And if we ever fall, the only way is up
Hey, as long as I give you my all
So you better get up
Cause you locked down all your love
You better get up
Cause this feeling just ain't enough
All I want is all of you
And all of me is loving you
So you better get up
Cause you locked down all your love
Love, love, love
Ow
