

Permanent

Acceptance

All these promises won't turn golden, until you touch them
It's permanent
Nothing is permanent
It's permanent
We'll be watching your back
Following indecision's lasting for years
Indecision's lasting for years
Some time ago memories in my head are starting again
Speak it fast don't move in slow
Running through the country
Maybe they will find me
It's permanent
Nothing is permanent
It's permanent
We'll be watching your back
Following indecision's lasting for years
Indecision's lasting for years
Like a river in Arizona, dried up before you were born
It's starting up again
It's starting up again
It's starting up again
(we'll be watching your back)
It's starting up again
We'll be watching your back
It's permanent
Nothing is permanent
It's permanent
We'll be watching your back
It's permanent
Nothing is permanent
It's permanent
Time is pushing us back
(following) permanent permanent permanent
