

Summertime Is Coming

Paul Banks

Summertime is coming so get out
Forget all those things that gloom with doubts
We'll swallow all the animals that you say we'll spend our whole lives like this.
Summertime is coming so get out, so get out, get out
Summertime is calling for you child (yeah yeah)
To give you a sense of reliance to feel at home in a crowd (yeah yeah)
The season (the season) is calling (calling) - and all of it breeds into one day
Get out, you get out, mmm you get out, you get out
I'm calling right now, I'm calling right now, right now, I'm calling right now
To find a way that Summer to stay that day
(inst.)
Summertime is coming for you child (yeah yeah)
Summer can feel that you're pliant (pliant)
and that you're sweet like a peach on the beach
So get out, so get out, mmm you get out, you get out
I'm calling right now, I'm calling right now, right now, I'm calling right now
Just to find a way that Summer to stay that day (Right now. Right now. I'm calling) We went. We went. We went. We went.
Is this the right time to know me?
Is this the right time to know?
Is this the right sign to show me?
Is the right, oh is this the right? My.
Can we waste some more time just colliding in space?
No matter how high we set the bar. No matter how high we set the bar.
Can we waste some more time just colliding in space?
No matter how high we set the bar. No matter how high we set the bar.
We break.

Lyrics provided by <http://www.1songlyrics.com/>