

One Voice

Burn The Priest

I stood strong through right or wrong
I fought pain with time and hate
Here i stand alone and on fire in a room with a view
A fence with barbwire
Today my world ends and so theirs begins
Slowly trying to justify comparable sins I stand here alone and unafraid
I've known in my past I've done worse days
May be apart from my dreams and desires
Yet no man can withhold me from what i most admire
I stood strong through right or wrong
I fought pain with time and hate
I'll fight when they try to strip me of my rights
And I won't
I won't accept defeat
I may be down but i will not be beat
One voice
With pride I'll keep on striving till I die
And never, never will I black out
The streets remain in heart without a doubt
One voice
One voice

Lyrics provided by <http://www.1songlyrics.com/>