

Exit to Exit

Ryan Cabrera

(Aaa)

Ooh

(Aey) Was it the little things I left unsaid?

The thoughts are wrapped around my head, in love, in life

Could it be our time was incomplete

Someone that's just bent to need enough inside (Ooh)

And I've lost my direction

Where do I turn? You wanted something more than this

Fell down for someone else's kiss

I'm lost without your light

So I drive, don't know why

But I drive, from exit to exit

(Ooh, aey)

Could it be the taste was bittersweet

Well it all comes down to your defeat so high, so low

Crash and burn we all fall down

And I can still hear the sound of love, run dry (Ooh)

And I've lost my connection

What have I learned? You wanted something more than this

Fell down for someone else's kiss

I'm lost without your light

So I drive, don't know why

But I drive, from exit to exit Someday, I won't be lost

Someday, I won't miss you

Someday, I'll understand

But for now you're takin' over me

I've lost my direction

Where do I turn? You wanted something more than this

Fell down for someone else's kiss

I'm lost without your light

So I drive, don't know why

But I drive, from exit to exit

(Ooh)

From exit to exit

I drive

From exit to exit

I drive

From exit to exit
