

Hanging Up My Jersey (feat. Ty Dolla $ign)

PnB Rock

I'm just keeping it a hunnit'
Girl fuck a fifty
I need a bad bitch who loyal and ain't too mixy for me
Need a jawn to help me count this paper
I need a real chick with no filter on and no makeup
Cause I done been around the world
Fucked a bunch of girls
Yeah they talk that cuffing shit
But they all be with the shits
Yeah I done been around the world
Fucked a bunch of girls
But now I'm in a different space
Tired of all these bitches in my face So shawty will you act cause I'm around
I'm hanging up my jersey for you
When I find you Imma lock you down
Right now
I'm right down my side of town
I'm high as hell
You fly as hell
You hold me down
Imma hold you down
I couldn't run this shit the way I really wanted
But Imma run it up regardless
And having you here is better
That's the truth
Right now
I'm right down my side of town
I'm high as hell
You fly as hell
You hold me down
Imma hold you down too
Couldn't run this shit the way I really wanted
But if you really need me
Shawty please believe me
Know that I'll always be there for you
Girl I bought a 911 and a new crib
I need a bad bitch to ride passenger
When I drive that shit
And she might tell me Dolla slow down, but she gone take that dick
She gonna take that D for Dolla
Cause I done been around the world
Fucked a lot of girls

Yeah they talk that cuffing shit
But still be with the shit
I done been around the world
Fucked a bunch of girls
But now I'm in a different space
Tired of all these bitches in my face
So shawty will you act cause I'm around
I'm hanging up my jersey for you
When I find you Imma lock you down
I don't really want to do nothing
Back then I ain't do cuffin'
I was really on some savage shit
Out there looking for the baddest bitch
Once I hit it I was dashing quick
Fuck and duck I might've mastered it
Now I'm feeling like I changed now
Need a girl to be my main now
So where you been
Cause I'm looking for you
Got some plans and they all for you
I got bands and they all for you
Real nigga I'm just tryna spoil you
Want some sex but I know it's more to you
Fuck your ex I could do more for you girl
I'm so tired of chasing these hoes
Can't wait to call someone my own
Right now
I'm right down my side of town
I'm high as hell
You fly as hell
You hold me down
Imma hold you down
I couldn't run this shit the way I really wanted
But Imma run it up regardless
And having you here is better
That's the truth
Right now
I'm right down my side of town
I'm high as hell
You fly as hell
You hold me down
Imma hold you down too
Couldn't run this shit the way I really wanted
But if you really need me
Shawty please believe me
Know that I'll always be there for you
