

You Redeem Me

Ace Young

When the walls are closin' in on me
And I can't find my way out
When I've seen as much as I can see
I just turn my eyes to You
And I know that I'll get through it
And when I'm hangin' by a thread
And when I'm sure I've reached the end
I reach for You, You redeem me
When I lose faith, when I lose ground
And everything, oh, comes crashin' down
You raise me up, You lift me up
You give me love, You redeem me
When I'm out standin' on the ledge
You pull me right back, back from the edge
You take me in with just a look, with just a touch
You redeem me with Your love
When it seems this life has stole my soul
You're there to bring it back
When the hurt holds on and won't let go
And it's just too much to take
I know You'll be there to save me
And when I'm sinkin' like a stone
Thinkin' I'm in this all alone
I reach for You, You redeem me
When I lose faith, when I lose ground
And everything, oh, comes crashin' down
You raise me up, You lift me up
You give me love, You redeem me
When I'm out standin' on the ledge
You pull me right back, back from the edge
You take me in with just a look, with just a touch
You redeem me with Your love
I lose track and You bring me back around
Without You there's no way
I'd be standing here right now
You look in my eyes, set me free, You redeem me
When I lose faith, when I lose ground
And everything, oh, comes crashin' down
You raise me up, You lift me up
You give me love, You redeem me
When I'm out standin' on the ledge
You pull me right back, back from the edge
You take me in with just a look, with just a touch
You redeem me with Your love
You redeem me
