

16

Highly Suspect

It took me 16 years to find ya
One second to love ya
Seven years to hold ya One minute to lose ya
Oh, God
Where did I go wrong?
Oh, God Do you remember
All of the nasty shit you used to do with me
'Cause I remember everything
Do you remember
When we hopped the BNB to NYC
You were only 17
But that puppy love is over
We're so much older
Nothing's ever gonna feel the same way
That it did when we were younger
I wish that I could hold ya
Baby, I know it's over
We're never gonna feel it again It took me 16 years to find ya
One second to love ya
Seven years to hold ya
One minute to lose ya
Oh, God
Yeah
Where did I go wrong?
Yeah
Do you remember (oh)
When I was your king
And you were my queen
Yeah, 'cause I remember everything
Do you remember
When you told me you were holding
My future kid
And all the joy that that would bring Well I thought I was a father
But baby is not my daughter
Cause baby's a different colour
Well baby I'm not a brother
It was just too much to swallow
(You ripped my heart out) But that puppy love is over
We're so much older
Nothing's ever gonna feel the same way
That it did when we were younger
I wish that I could hold ya

But baby, I know that it's over
We're never gonna feel it again Well it took me 16 years to find ya
One second to love ya
Seven years to hold ya
And just one minute to lose ya
Oh, God, yeah
Where did I go wrong? Yeah
Where did you go? And I said
I'm sorry if I ever see you again
'Cause on that day
I'll wonder where
Where you probably needed a friend It took me 16 years to find ya
One second to love ya
Don't trust you
But I still love you
Oh, God
Where did I go wrong?
Where did you go?
Where did I go wrong? Baby, it took me 16 years to find ya
But only a second to love ya
Seven years to hold ya
And just one minute to lose ya
Oh, God, yeah
Where did I go wrong? Yeah
Where did you go? Yeah
Where did we both go?
Said, where did we both go
Where did I go wrong? Yeah
Oh yeah
