

Where Your Road Leads

Trisha Yearwood & Garth Brooks

I believe in miracles,
I believe in signs,
And I believe the mountains move,
One prayer at a time.If I could be an angel,
I would make your every wish come true
But I am only human,
Just a woman loving you.Where your road leads I will follow
When your heart bleeds, I'll be there for you
When your night grows dark and you can't find your tomorrow
Then you can follow me.
Some day we'll look back and see
Our footprints in the sand
Sometimes you would carry me,
And sometimes you would be in my hands.If we can love forever,
That won't be long enough for me
I wanna hold you tender,
Be your shelter, all you need.Where your road leads, I will follow
When your heart bleeds, I'll be there for you
When your night grows dark and you can't find your tomorrow
Then you can follow me.Oh, we can be each others guide
Love through this lonely world.
Where your road leads, I will follow
When your heart bleeds, I'll be there for you
When your night grows dark and you can't find your tomorrow
Then you can follow me.When you've lost sight of your dreams,
Then you can follow me...
