Out Of Sight Miami Horror
Hey you look good
Hey you look good
Two toned, it may take the lonely road
Do you really want it? Do you really want it?
One chance, two times, make it last again
Do you really want it? Do you really want it?
Hide from your desires
No way, no way, no
Hide from your desires
No way, no way, no
Weak without a warning, born into a story
Weak without a warning, born into a story
[?] heart goes racing numb
Do you really want it? Do you really want it?
We can hardly count the days at work
Do you really want it? Do you really want it?
Hide from your desires
No way, no way, no
Hide from your desires
No way, no way, no
Weak without a warning, born into a story
Weak without a warning, born into a story
Weak without a warning, born into a story
Weak without a warning, born into a story
But keep your head above those waters
Go with the current please, go with your energy
And he disappeared with white wings into the unknown
Hey you look good
Hey you look good
Hey you look good
Hey you look good
You keep goin' out of sight
You keep goin' out of sight
Weak without a warning, born into a story
Weak without a warning, born into a story
Weak without a warning, born into a story
Hey you look good
Hey you look good
Hey you look good
Hey you look good
