

Longer Than I Thought (feat. Joe Jonas)

Loot

[Joe Jonas:]
I think I saw you on the subway
Riding my way home from work
Probably got yourself a new boyfriend
Honestly, I can't be sure Oh why, oh why, oh why, oh why, oh why am I stuck on you?
Mmm, mmm
Oh why, oh why, oh why, oh why, oh why am I drunk on you?
Mmm, oh I guess it's gonna take me longer than I thought to get over you
I would have liked to hit the ground running but I fell into you
Wanted to call you but now it's overdue
It's gonna take me longer than I thought, oh, to get over you
Mmm, to get over you
When it comes to us two
Oh, to get over you [Loot:]
You were a bruise that I forgot about
'Til I licked on it again
And I keep running out of distractions
And I keep running into your friends [Joe Jonas & Loot:]
Oh why, oh why, oh why, oh why, oh why am I stuck on you?
Mmm, mmm
Oh why, oh why, oh why, oh why, oh why am I drunk on you?
Mmm, oh I guess it's gonna take me longer than I thought to get over you
I would have liked to hit the ground running but I fell into you
Wanted to call you but now it's overdue
It's gonna take me longer than I thought, oh, to get over you
[Joe Jonas:]
Mmm, to get over you
When it comes to us two
Oh, to get over you We should talk it over
Only if you want to
Don't you think about it
Dont you second-guess it
'Cause looking in the rearview, I still see you baby
I think I'm gonna take the long way home
Said I think I'm gonna take the long way home I guess it's gonna take me longer than I thought to get over you
I would have liked to hit the ground running
Wanted to call you but now it's overdue
It's gonna take me longer than I thought, oh, to get over you Mmm, to get over you
When it comes to us two
Oh, to get over you We should talk it over
Only if you want to

Don't you think about it
Dont you second-guess it
'Cause looking in the rearview, I still see you baby
