

Stone

Cyrus

I should've known, from your voice alone
That you were gonna mess me up
Too much pleasure like a sugar rush
I should have guessed, from your cherry lips
That you were gonna leave your mark
Never had a kiss that could hit so hard
And I feel you drifting over me, yeah you got this hold on me (Oh-oh-oh-oh)
And you, yeah you make it hard to breathe
But it just don't bother me, but it just don't bother me I'm a stone in your river, rolling to wherever
I drown just a little, I drown just a little
I'm a stone in your river, every night I'm with you
I drown just a little, deep down in you
I should've known, watching you dance alone
That I could never get enough of your body, they can call it love
I could have guessed, from your silhouette
That we were gonna rive real fast, oh baby we can make it last
And I feel you drifting over me, yeah you got this hold on me (Oh-oh-oh-oh)
And you, yeah you make it hard to breathe
But it just don't bother me, but it just don't bother me bother me I'm a stone in your river, rolling to wherever
I drown just a little, I drown just a little
I'm a stone in your river, every night I'm with you
I drown just a little, deep down in you (Hey-yeah-yeah-yeah, hey-yeah-yeah)
I drown just a little, deep down in you
(Yeah, baby)
I drown just a little, deep down in you
I'm a stone in your river, rolling to wherever
I drown just a little, I drown just a little
I'm a stone in your river, every night I'm with you
I drown just a little, deep down in you I'm a stone in your river, rolling to wherever
I drown just a little, I drown just a little
I'm a stone in your river, every night I'm with you
I drown just a little, deep down in you (Hey, deep down in you)
I drown just a little, deep down in you
I drown just a little, deep down in you
