

Hell To Pay

Drowning Pool

I thought it wouldn't last forever
You were sure it's never end
We should have known better
As our world caved in And we had to watch it fall
Then we lost it all There's always hell to pay, yeah
To get away from yesterday, to sever
There's always hell to pay, yeah
When every day's like yesterday
And yesterday's gone
I can't live in the past
Watch it slip away, it goes by so fast
My future's filled with doubt
And I wanna cut my soul right out
As for me, the end is here at last And we almost had it all
Now watch it fall There's always hell to pay, yeah
To get away from yesterday, to sever
There's always hell to pay, yeah
When every day's like yesterday
And yesterday's gone And we almost had it all
We almost had it all
And we had to watch it fall
Falling away, falling away, forever
There's always hell to pay, yeah
To get away from yesterday, to sever
There's always hell to pay, yeah
When every day's like yesterday
And yesterday's gone There's always hell to pay, yeah
When every day's like yesterday
And yesterday's gone
