

Cries of Credo

Emmure

"Rape" he screams
In tongues I've never heard before
A world full of deceivers
But I believe in you How dare they ignore you?
God, where are you? "Rape" he screams
In tongues I've never heard before
Why destroy
Why's this so easily ignored?
God, God, where are you?
God, God, where are you?
God, where are you? "Rape" he screams
In tongues I've never heard before
A world full of deceivers
But I believe in you
God, where are you?
God, where are you? God, where are you?
God, where are you?
God, where are you?
