

Let the Blood Run Red

Thor

Double trouble stranger
The dogs of doom howl low
I see them over my shoulder
They're comin' at my back
I draw my mighty sword
I swing as they attack
Chorus:
Let the blood run red
Let them all be dead
(all those who oppose the metal avenger)
Look them in the eyes
Knock them down to size
(no one must oppose the metal avenger)
Who dares to fight the avenger
The pile of bodies grow
I see them in the distance
They're comin' at each side
My sword runs them through
'till all of them subside
How can i show you i'm better than you
Just look at my fist and see what i do!
Double trouble stranger
The battle takes it's toll
I see them over my shoulder
They're comin' at my back
I draw my mighty hammer
I slam as they attack
