

The Truth (feat. Kylie Auldist)

FDVM

No time to waste
I think you know
What's gonna break this thing, I got
No rhyme or reason
Ain't got no one
Not one thing, don't bring it up
No need for self-control
There's a change in my tone
But the ticket's sold, and oh
You've tried to sell my soul
Wanna make it my goal
Wanna take it all
You can't find the truth
I got a thing that'll work on you
You can't find the proof
I got a thing that'll work on you
I'm turnin' round
You watch me go
No awful's changed my mind [?]
It's never season
To be livin'
Won't be given up again
You're climbing out that hole
With your sticks and your stones
But you ain't got long, no-oh
Forget all you've been told
Wanna make it my goal
Wanna take it all
You can't hide the truth
I got a thing that'll work on you
You can't find the proof
I got a thing that'll work on you
You can't hide the truth
I got a thing that'll work on you
You can't find the proof
I got a thing that'll work on you
You can't hide the truth
I got a thing that'll work on you
You can't find the proof
I got a thing that'll work on you
