

Hellions On Parade

CKY

Your fear becomes a prodigy
For a makeshift operation
Devouring until the system's slain
The rage imposed it overflows
Pensive reason slows
And at dawn its on to kill the light of day
You taunt the fraying fabric of a brain that if twists a little more
You'll find demise as hatred has its way
Panic thrives our numbers rise
Don't open your eyes
The rally's closing forcing you at bay
You don't want to see this
If you did you'd surely disbelieve it
Establishing your plan again
You think to seal our doom
But there's no room in our agenda for defeat
Defense defies you
Lame tame and humane
And 96 will stop you easily
You don't want to see this
If you did you'd surely disbelieve it
Locked in and surrounded
Every heart is pounding
Hellions on parade
Bodies fall by hand and blade
We relish your foundations burning
Destruction on display
Hellions on parade
Swiftness preys on all delay
Join in this brigade
Be afraid... the hellions on parade
You don't want to see this
If you did you'd surely disbelieve it
A city placed on red alert
Collapses to the dirt along with faith and pompous dignity
Comformists crumble to their knees
Stripped of their abilities
Abundant screams
The begging feeble pleas...
You don't want to see this
If you did you'd surely disbelieve it
Locked in and surrounded
Existence is Impounded
Hellions on parade
Destruction on display
Hellions on parade
Join in this brigade
