

Castle in the Sky

Tkay Maidza

We're in the castle and they're trying to get into our heads
We're dreaming wild now, visions are burning up red
Keep it down, down, down, but the rhythm won't spare
We're in the castle high painting skies with our own flair
It's like we are the rolling stones and it's the battle of the ages
Our dreams are made of flesh and bones, guarding our fortress from the dangers
We're in the castle and they're trying to get into our souls
We see no limit so high so we really can't fall
Another round, round, round
Yeah we're swimming in gold
We're in our castle they're jelly
Cause they're watching us glow
It's like we are the rolling stones and it's the battle of the ages
Our dreams are made of flesh and bones, guarding our fortress from the dangers
It's like we are the rolling stones and it's the battle of the ages
Our dreams are made of flesh and bones, guarding our fortress from the dangers
We're in the castle and they're trying to get into our heads
We're dreaming wild now, visions are burning up red
Keep it down, down, down, but the rhythm won't spare
We're in the castle high painting skies with our own flair
We're rolling, and falling
We're rolling, and falling
We're rolling, and falling
We're rolling, and falling
We're rolling
