

Never Should Have Done You Wrong (feat. Clint G)

Lil Cuete

I cant sleep with out her I need her real close shes the girl of my dreams with my eyes closed Im having nightmares like shes been with someone new my mind is playing tricks is that something she wouldn't do shes always been there to give me all the love she had I guess I didn't truly know what I really had but now im really sad hoping that she comes back I know i hurt her but I didn't mean to do that I wish that I could take it all back show her so she knows that shes the only girl that gives me butterfly's and I aint lying I love her till im dying and real talk the only girl that on my mind and I aint gonna fake it I was happy with my lady it has me going crazy cause I haven't seen her lately shes all I need around she always makes it better if shes a bird then im a bird and were gonna fly together Forget my past but love I need your touch you're the only one I never should of done you wrong Forget my past but love I need your touch I never should of done you wrong And ill do anything just so I could let her know that she the love of my life I never wanna let her go and it just breaks my heart knowing that I made her cry no way to explain all the pain I feel inside I wish I had another chance and I would make it right cause shes the only girl who ever need in my life I hope she thinks of me what the truth she provably don't and i don't blame her at the end I know her heart was bloke and now all I hope is that she misses me and when she lays down asleep I hope she dreams of me and how we use to be when we were still as one I don't want no one else shes my only one shes bringing out my sun that's what i'm talking bout Im not embarrassed never was I want to scream it out I know that I was wrong babey I apologize no way that I can hide you could see it in my eyes Forget my past but love I need your touch you're the only one I never should of done you wrong

Forget my past but love I need your touch I never should of done you wrong I never meant to harm you're precious little heart if I could change you're mind pleas let me and be mine if you're a bird and im a bird lets fly away above the earth lets fly away Forget my past but love I need your touch you're the only one I never should of done you wrong
Forget my past but love I need your touch I never should of done you wrong
