

Now you look so seamless now
You look so seamless now
Take me, take my life
Stink filled spasms
Deep in a colostomy bag
I like being trapped inside
The plastics wearing out
Red and perfect her legs
Spread out in front of me
They're so open they make me sweat
Its my lubrication
Recent findings say
Circumcise the abstinent
Make it hard for them to breathe
I like to make you lie
Dropped and so ill
Steeped in my misogyny
My shaking hands are in the skin
I've gone too far, too soon
You look so seamless now
