

Run Every Time

Gavin DeGraw

I got troubles that I can't hide
So many and it's turning on the inside out
I know a woman's nature
There's nothing you can save here
Me, I run every time We got two tickets but the one way
And I went with it so I can't say no
I lit a fuse I can't stop, I opened doors I can't lock
And still I never meant to be this close And let it slip away
I keep stumbling till I finally miss the last train
Oh, she's ready, I'm not ready
I hear people go crazy for steady but me, I run every time
So I told her get a head start
Like the last one I didn't have the heart to tell her straight
I know how she'll receive it and I can't bear to see it
That's why I never meant to be this close And let it slip away
I keep stumbling till I finally miss the last train
Oh, she's ready, I'm not ready
I hear people go crazy for steady but me, I run every time And I hope she sees, it's not her, it's just me
And I'm so sorry to be this close And let it slip away
I keep stumbling till I finally miss the last train
Oh, she's ready, I'm not ready
I hear people go crazy for steady but me, I run every time
I'm close and let it slip away
I keep dragging my feet till I finally miss the last train
Oh, she's ready, I'm not ready
I hear people go crazy for steady but me, I run every time
I run every time, I run every time I'm close

Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by <http://www.1songlyrics.com/>