

Sleep With One Eye Open (Tek-One)

Bring Me the Horizon

FUCK YOU! You took what you wanted and left, like locusts
Everything I gave to you
Everything that we've been through You bled me dry and went, like leeches GO! You've got what you came for, now leave, like vultures
Ripped apart in minutes
What we built in seven years
The ink scarred on your back
May as well as disappear
For as long as I remember
You sold everything you own But now you've sold our friendship
You're on your fucking own
Sleep with one eye open
(BECAUSE)
If I had it my way
I'd slit your throat
With the knife that you left in my back
All this shame
All this guilt All this regret
THAT'S ME!
I'm inside of you!
And this is your world
fucking falling apart mate
From the inside out
Everything will fall apart at your feet
You've got hell to pay
Yeah! you've got hell to pay
And you better fuckin bow
Bow down to me
You better beg for mercy
Get on your fucking knees
And cry me a fucking river
Sleep with one eye open
(because)
Best friends means forever
CUNT!
