

I Know

Post Malone

Our love, will never be another
You're just a devil undercover
Found you when you were in the gutter
Shit was sweet until I was a sucker Shout out Jonas Brothers
I learned more than I care to discover
Don't you know that I'm more than a comma
You act up then act like it's nothing
Sold your soul, you Stone Cold, you a Stunner Every time you left, shit was never right
In another bed every single night
Had it to a science, you were so precise
See it in your eyes, saw you in the light
Somehow mami, I still want you *
Listen to me, don't drive away
Kill me softly, your hold on me is Something I can't explain
I know you could never be my bitch
Shit could never be like this
I know, stop thinking you're in my plans
Hundred times, you blew another chance
I know, you were getting down on the low
Then running back to me in the morning
I know, shit could never be like this
You could never be my bitch, no, no Our love, will never be another
You're just a devil undercover
Found you when you were in the gutter
Shit was sweet until I was a sucker Rather be single for life
Then be fucking with you
I ain't rolling the dice, no
I ain't playing to lose
Every time you left, shit was never right
In another bed every single night
Had it to a science, you were so precise
See it in your eyes, saw you in the light
Somehow mami, I still want you
Listen to me, don't drive away
Kill me softly, your hold on me is
Something I can't explain I know you could never be my bitch
Shit could never be like this
I know, stop thinking you're in my plans
Hundred times, you blew another chance
I know, you were getting down on the low
Then running back to me in the morning

I know, shit could never be like this
You could never be my bitch, no, no(Be my bitch)
(It could never be like that)
(It could never be like that)
(It could never be like that)
