

Bad Businessman

Squirrel Nut Zippers

There's a man going around in this town selling lies.

He's the bad businessman

And the mess he sells is bad

And the mess he leaves is sad.

He's a clown

That's going to get bounced around

If he don't keep his business underground.

He's a player

But every time he deals a round

It's a bad hand

What a bad man.

Beware of what he sells.

It's shooting you straight to hell.

"Tain't no bottom in that wishing well.

Bad businessman.
