

Sundial

Wanderlust

You're my type
I'm your nightmare come and see love is magic now you see it now you don't now you won't But there you stand here I melt I'm what you saw you're what I felt and the whole world it spun around your face Life begun with your smile
Baby you're my sundial You're my type I'm your sidewalk singer
Come and see me
But there you stood so refined and I lost all track of time It was you, it was me and I prayed someone would see how love shined but there you stood like a prize against the brown grainy skies and who was I to scream "me" when the whole world could see that there you stand and here I melt I'm what you saw you're what I felt
and the whole world it spun around your face
Life begun with your smile
Baby, you're my sundial
