

Roll On

Son Volt

Smoke fills the dreams of the live gone lonely
Wait in line, pay the man you might see
John Barleycorn make his way among the dirty diamonds
Shared ground and common radar
Honky tonks and biker bars
Finding worth in this world from inside a rental car Roll on with the dreamers, believers in the steel eyed soul
The blessing is counted when the deal goes down
So on and on we roll
Left to chance or left undone, miles to go chasing the sun
The stones we throw always find us on the way down
The pace that changes each breaking of light
This man made destructive might, they say love conquers all
And every Don Quixote must have his day
Roll on with the dreamers, believers in the steel eyed soul
The blessing is counted when the deal goes down
So on and on we roll
