

Trust

Brent Faiyaz

Either you down or you ain't
You either riding or you can't
Down or you ain't You told me I could trust you, don't lie
I could really use it
Everybody need love, even niggas like me
You told me I could trust you
And I could really use it So much I wanna talk about
But I ain't got no one to talk to (Shit, I don't)
I'm always tryna work it out
But somehow it always falls through
And I know that I get rough
But I just wanna feel love
Sometimes
Either you down or you ain't
You either riding or you can't
Real shit
You told me I could trust you (Stay ten toes for a nigga)
Don't lie
(I ain't running game on you)
I could really use it
(Stay ten toes for a nigga, shorty, stay ten toes for a nigga)
You told me I could trust you (The more I tell you, the more you wanna know)
And I could really use it
(If I tell you, will you use it when I'm low?) Hood fame, everybody know my name
When I come through
But don't nobody scream it like you
I was having visions with you
Doing thangs, switching lanes in the beamer with you And swimming in deep water
Save me from my sorrows
Swimming in deep
Just some peace is all I need
So why can't I get that for free?
You told me I could trust you (Stay ten toes for a nigga)
Don't lie (I ain't running game on you)
I could really use it
(Stay ten toes for a nigga, shorty, stay ten toes for a nigga)
You told me I could trust you (The more I tell you, the more you wanna know)
And I could really use it
(If I tell you, will you use it when I'm low?) You told me I could trust you
Don't lie (I ain't running game on you)
I could really use it
(Stay ten toes for a nigga, shorty, stay ten toes for a nigga)

You told me I could trust you (The more I tell you, the more you wanna know)
And I could really use it
(If I tell you, will you use it when I'm low?)
