

Return to Me

Sparklehorse

arise oh brother mountain our hooves hammering your coils the rivers carve out your hollows with tears from me
return to me
return to me my love
oh my lovebe still oh rusting river unlock her name from your grass unburden the pressures of fathoms of tears from me
return to me
return to me my love
o my love
o my love
return to the clouds
return in the caves
return over valleys
o my love
o my love
o my love
