A Moment

We Came As Romans

All the lies don't hold me, but they're sinking in my skin, coursing through my veinsAnd the truth eludes me, losing sight of it againSave me from myselfClose my eyes, see my lifeHave I lost my way?I hope this is the last timeAm I here to stay?Nowhere left to hideThere's always a way to find the reason in a moment

There is truth inside me but it feels out of reachWill it come to me?And you'll walk beside meI'll see things that you seeWill you wait for me?Close my eyes, see my lifeHave I lost my way?I hope this is the last timeAm I here to stay?Nowhere left to hideThere's always a way to find the reason in a momentSave your future for meSave your timeSave your future for meSave my lifeClose my eyes, see my lifeHave I lost my way?

I hope this is the last timeAm I here to stay?Nowhere left to hideThere's always a way to find the reason in a moment
