

My Everything

Next

I've only imaged you in every way
I'll think of you all night and all day
I only want you when I'm awake and when I'm sleep
You don't mean a thing 'cuz you mean everything to me
Oh oh I'm your shelter in the rain
I'll take away the pain
Never have to hurt again
No oh wanna be your love supreme
Without you I'm not complete
You're my everything and I just want you to know
I breathe you girl
I eat you girl
I need you girl
I speak you girl
I dream girl
You complete my world you're my everything
I never die for you I'd rather live to love you
You could take my arms I'd still find ways to touch you yeah
You could take my legs I'd still run to your rescue I love you I really do and I
I'm your shelter in the rain
I'll take away the pain
Never have to hurt again
You want have to hurt again no no no
Wanna be your love supreme
Without you I'm not complete
You're my everything oh oh oh
I breathe you girl
I eat you girl
I need you girl
I speak you girl
I dream you girl
You complete my world you're my everything
I breathe you girl
I eat you girl
I need you girl
I speak you girl
I dream you girl
You complete my world you're my everything
If you need someone to call on you know I'm not far away
So whenever where ever whatever you need
Girl all I can say
I breathe you girl

I eat you girl
I need you girl
I speak you girl
I dream you girl
You complete my world you're my everythang
I breathe you girl
I eat you girl
I need you girl
I speak you girl
I dream you girl
You complete my world you're my everythang
Everything you are my everythang
Everythang i need you my everythang you
You are my everthang
