

Piece of the Pie

Globelamp

Everyone wants a piece of the pie
Scape the goat stab out its eyes
Everyone wants their chance to shine
Run on you, won't look behindHow do you sleep with yourself at night?
Do you really think you're justified?
How do you live with the lies you've told?
I know your soul will pay a tollEveryone wants a piece of the pie
Scape the goat, stab out its eyes
Everyone wants their chance to shine
Run on you, won't look behindHow do you sleep with yourself at night?
Do you really think you're justified?
How do you live with the lies you've told?
I know your soul will pay a toll
Where will you go when the world don't have no money?
What will you buy when there's nothing
Left to sell?
Where will you go when the World don't have
